

9 Days Northern Circuit Route

THE GRAND KILIMANJARO EXPEDITION

The Northern Circuit is Kilimanjaro’s longest standard route and one of its most complete expeditions. It begins in the west, traverses the quieter northern slopes and approaches the summit from School Hut, giving climbers exceptional time at altitude and a rare sense of wilderness.

Day by day

DAY 01

Londorossi Gate to Mti Mkubwa Camp

2,100 m → 2,650 m · 6 km · 3–4 hrs · Rainforest · +550 m

A controlled first day through montane forest, focused on settling into expedition pace.

DAY 02

Mti Mkubwa to Shira 1 Camp

2,650 m → 3,610 m · 8 km · 5–6 hrs · Heath · +960 m

Climb out of the forest and onto the expansive Shira Plateau.

DAY 03

Shira 1 to Shira 2 / Moir area

3,610 m → 4,200 m · 10 km · 4–6 hrs · Moorland / alpine desert · +590 m

Cross the plateau with optional acclimatization above camp, depending on conditions and group health.

DAY 04

Moir area to Buffalo Camp

4,200 m → 4,020 m · 12 km · 5–7 hrs · Alpine desert

Turn onto the quiet northern flank, traversing beneath the Lent Hills into a much less visited part of Kilimanjaro.

DAY 05

Buffalo Camp to Third Cave

4,020 m → 3,870 m · 8 km · 4–6 hrs · High moorland

A rolling traverse with broad views toward Kenya. The slightly lower sleeping altitude supports recovery.

DAY 06

Third Cave to School Hut

3,870 m → 4,750 m · 5 km · 4–5 hrs · Alpine desert · +880 m

Climb steadily to the final high camp. Rest, hydrate and prepare for the midnight summit departure.

DAY 07

School Hut to Uhuru Peak to Millennium Camp

4,750 m → 3,820 m · 18 km · 12-16 hrs · Arctic summit to moorland · +1,145 m · -2,075 m

Ascend toward Gilman's Point, continue around the crater rim to Uhuru Peak, then descend via Barafu toward Millennium Camp.

DAY 08

Millennium Camp to Mweka Camp

3,820 m → 3,100 m · 7 km · 3-4 hrs · Moorland to rainforest

A deliberately easier recovery day after summit, descending into thicker vegetation.

DAY 09

Mweka Camp to Mweka Gate

3,100 m → 1,640 m · 10 km · 3-4 hrs · Rainforest

Complete the final forest descent and return to Moshi after certificate formalities.
